

'The perfect venue'

Let Crompton's at the Waterside be the place you choose to commemorate the passing of your loved one. Our comfortable and sympathetic interior together with the tranquil surroundings will accommodate you and your guests accordingly.

Our experienced staff will aim to ensure that you have a truly memorable day with us here and we would be only too pleased to help you in the planning of your arrangements.

Our buffet selection will offer all you need at a price you can afford. Alternatively, our catering team will produce a bespoke buffet for your individual needs or if you prefer, you and your guests can enjoy a freshly prepared three course dinner, the choice is yours,

We thank you in anticipation and look forward to being of service to you at these very sad times

Best regards
Jo Morgan
